INTERIM NEWSLETTER NO. 4

SEPTEMBER, 1977

THE SEPTEMBER MEETING

Tuesday - September 20th - at 8:00 p.m.

Speaker: Mr. William Coles, Past President
Moorestown Historical Society

Subject: Illustrated History of Colestown

CANDLELIGHT TOUR: Six homes, several never previously opened, the Episcopal Church and Greenfield Hall will be open for the Candlelight Tour, Saturday, October 22, from 6:00 to 10:00 pm.

WOMEN'S EVENING GROUP: •••Will resume its fourth Wednesday gatherings September 28th at 8:00 p.m. Society librarian Gertrude Hess will talk about the collection of original manuscripts, documents, books and pamphlets in our collection. All are welcome.

SUMMER SUNDAY HOURS: In terms of numbers, a disappointment; in terms of building good will, excellent.

PENNSBURY MANOR FORUM: The Pennsbury Manor Forum will end with a tour of historic sites in Delaware Valley. One of the buildings to be included on the Tour is Greenfield Hall, and several Society members have volunteered to act as hostesses for the occasion.

A TRIBUTE TO ELINOR R. JENNINGS: It is with sadness that we report the death of Mrs. Jennings, long-time corresponding secretary of the Society. A valiant woman, she learned to live with pain while maintaining a cheerful outlook and keeping as actively engaged as her health permitted.

CHANGES ON THE BOARD: Mrs. William E. Moody, president, accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Edward E. Krauss, Jr., second vice president and membership chairman. Miss Elizabeth Lyons will handle the 1977 membership mailings and renewals. Mr. Blair M. Murphy has been appointed chairman of the Nominating Committee.
